BLACK EXTRAVAGANZA

"Have You Seen Her – Mother Africa"

*As I sit here searching, wondering, waiting, struggling, a thought comes to mind of a sweet lady I haven't seen in a long time.
About 400 years to be exact.*

I remember last seeing her weeping in the tropical rainforest over the loss of her dear children, you and me. As her stature disappeared over the horizon I knew, I just knew that I would see her again.

*I remember how she used to come into our village
to see that everyone had enough food, clothing and shelter and how she made oh so certain that no one was treated any better or with any more love than another.*

*She was a beautiful lady. She was as tall as Mount Kilimanjaro, her smile was as wide as the Sahara, and her patience just as long. Yes,
She was very loving and unfortunately this was the reason for her loss of millions of her children.*

Because of her loving and because of her trustworthy nature she took in a weary but most unworthy and deceptive traveler. Who rapped her of her richness and beauty and relegated her to other human status.

Stripped of all her goodness She fled-- somewhere -- who knows?

I heard that she was getting herself together to return to Her lost children.

Have you seen Her? Mother Africa -- Have you seen Her?

Brother Tariekh

LET EVERY VOICE AND SING

*Let every voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty,
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea—
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us,
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.*

*Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died,
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered;
We have come, treading our path thro' the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.*

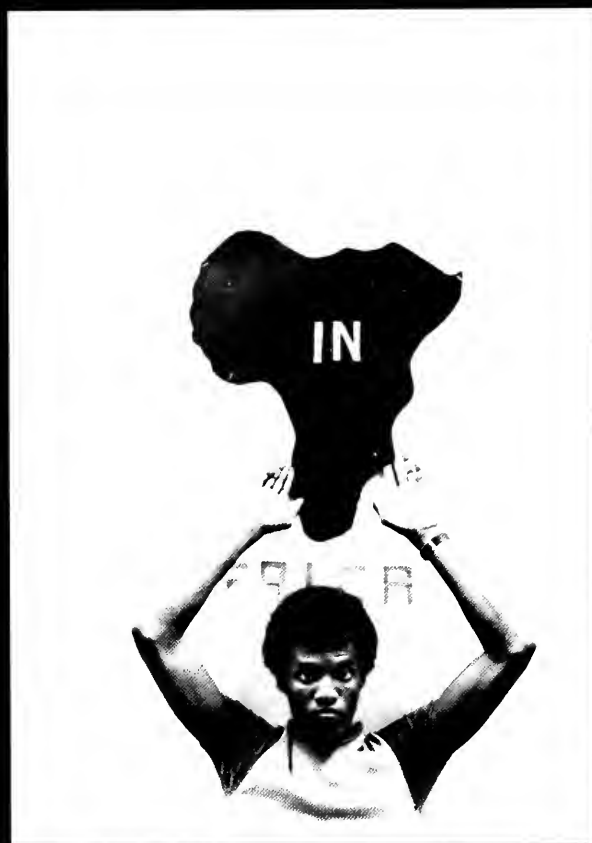

*God of our weary tears,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way,
Thou who hast by Thy night
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path we pray,
Lest our feet stray from the places, O God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God, True to our native land.*

Dear Fellow-Classmates:

Editing the 1971 and 1972 "Eagle" has been a most memorable occasion.

To the individuals who have contributed toward the success of the Eagle and helped me when I needed help the most I say thank you.

I thank my parents, Mr. & Mrs. Stephen Bradford for their guidance; Mrs. Lou S. Barnes for helping me to control my temper; Mrs. Marion Covington and Mr. Charles Warren aided me in the financial office problems. Mr. Henry Brooks contributed his part as my adviser.

Without my staff it would have been an impossible task - to my staff I also thank you.

I have enjoyed my position as Editor-in-Chief. The Eagle staff hopes you enjoy your yearbook.

Power!!

Very truly yours,

Carole Bradford
Editor-in-Chief

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF — CAROLE BRADFORD

Discussing plans with my senior editor — Allen Morrissey.

Trynix to persuade Carole not to hurt the dog.

DEDICATION

"A Fallen Eagle"

The 1972 edition of "the Eagle" is dedicated to Ollie Spraglin. Ollie was a student at NCCU when he was struck down by persons whom to this day have not received due punishment for this crime.

Ollie was at NCCU to receive an education — not to compete in a fist fight.

Ollie Spraglin was a resident of Plainfield, New Jersey. Upon graduating from Plainfield High School, he then attended NCCU.

We shall remember Ollie as the classmate whose last pleading words to his assailants were — "Hey man, let me live."

*Tears, she heard the sound
long since gone
soft tender hand, knowing smile
Protection
when I'm hurt
I shed the tears
now I'm gone
she cries alone*

Milton A. Dimmons

A TRIBUTE

Luther James Manning, Jr., known by his friends as "Heade", was born in Greensboro, N. C., August 20, 1951. While attending James B. Dudley Senior High School in Greensboro, "Heade" was an active member in "Project Upward Bound."

After entering North Carolina Central University in 1970, he joined the University Touring Choir and became a member of Tau Phi Tau Fraternity on November 19, 1971. "Heade" departed this life December 13, 1971, as the result of a heart attack.

If we must die, let it not be like hogs
Hunted and penned in an inglorious spot,
While round us bark the mad and hungry dogs,
Making their mock at our accursed lot.
If we must die, O let us nobly die,
So that our precious blood may not be shed
In vain; then even the monsters we defy
Shall be constrained to honor us though dead!
O kinsmen! We must meet the common foe!
Though far outnumbered let us show us brave,
And for their thousand blows deal one deathblow!
What though before us lies the open grave?
Like men we'll face the murderous, cowardly pack,
Pressed to the wall, dying, but fighting back!

Claude McKay
